The South End submarket is home to savvy corporate headquarters, forward-thinking entrepreneurs, brewers, designers, artists, chefs, and many more dynamic industries. With a rich history in gold, textiles, transit and tech, South End is a place where ideas come to life and people come together.

Sitting in the heart of South End's Design District, 2322 Dunavant Street is centrally located at the crossroads of Uptown, South End and Lower South End. This prime location draws in an eclectic mix of businesses and people that are attracted to the numerous offerings and unrivaled transit access of the area.
